

RM 8811

Interroll End Stop

Dimensions

Product Description

The end stop is a permanently mounted attachment, for stopping and accumulating of approaching material. The end stop is used at the end of sloped or friction roller conveyors, or as a secure termination of all other conveyor lines.

Technical data

General technical data	Maximum accumulation pressure	300 N
------------------------	-------------------------------	-------

BF	Between frames	420, 620, 840 mm others on request
----	----------------	---------------------------------------

Scope of supply

- End stop, incl. fastening material